2. What impact has/will this training have on you?

“I have new tools to practice with to make my journey as an officer safer and more enjoyable.” “Some – it is like shining a light on what was needed to be covered.” “Taught me to keep an open mind.” “A lot of what I experienced here was already understood.” “I can better handle stressful situations.” “A lasting” “Life/work changing” “Some” “Learn to value other’s ideas.” “Gave me the tools to deal with staff problems and resolve issues in a calm manner.” “I will have a more positive outlook on myself and other staff members.” “Stress” “More positive interactions – attitude change” “Realizing the areas I can improve myself and others.” “Communicating with a different/positive mindset.” “I’ll be able to take this info back to my unit and share with my coworkers that aren’t able to attend.”

3. Additional Comments

“I enjoyed the training – Really!” “I never really ever addressed these issues before.” “A full understanding on Why this type of class was not offered to starting O/C” “Good class” “This class should be more often.” “Hope to have this class again – really enjoyed it.” “Outstanding class!” “Would like to have this class as a supervisor class. I think this would have led to ‘free speaking’ on several of the topics.” “Great teacher/instructor – gave information in a way that was understood by all in the class. Also the way he let us speak our minds and nothing would be held against us.” “Instructor was knowledgeable about the subjects and was enthusiastic.” “Thank you!” “We are taught not to be personal with our coworkers. At times, even sharing our first names, made this class uncomfortable.” “I liked the Adjective Name, placing everyone on the same level from the beginning.”
